ORIENTAL DANCE

BEAUTIFUL SETTING FOR BRILLIANT SOCIAL AFFAIR AT ELKS' CLUB HOUSE

Saturday night the promised "Oriental Dance" at the Elks' Club became a reality. Festoons of red, white and blue lights at the entrance advertised the fact that something unusual was in progress and caused a little thrill of anticipation in the breast of each pleasure seeker who approached. That meant about five hundred thrills, for at least that number attended the festivity. None was disappointed when the doors of the lodge hall were thrown open to dancers and the beauty of the Oriental setting was revealed.

The stage reproduced a typical Chinese shrine to the god Buddha whose image beneath the customary pagoda formed the central feature. Rich Oriental draperies furnished the background while above hung beautiful lanterns, and below were costly incense burners, jars and vases filled with joss sticks.

Enclosing the six chandeliers were huge square lanterns, reproductions of those which are hung at the entrance of a Buddhist temple. Interspersed with the cubical transparencies were suspended lovely globular lanterns, butterfly shapes and garlands, and at irregular intervals the wall was decorated with lotus leaves and flowers, suggesting dreams of happiness and with butterflies which symbolize immortality. Strands of wistaria were twined with the ropes of the swing used by one of a group of fancy dancers in Oriental garb who had been engaged to furnish special numbers during the evening and whose beautiful costumes were the real thing, not a tawdry imitation.

The dancer who used the swing made her spectacular entrance in a jirriksha, and it was a wonderfully pretty and novel number. The group included two American girls and one dainty bit of Chinese womanhood. Six of her little countrywomen gave a touch of reality in the banquet hall down stairs where a cabaret chop suey supper prepared by Chef Men Yen Low, was served by them at tables placed behind a screen of evergreens and palms, the front of the room being reserved for the dancers, and the stage (with an Oriental setting) for the excellent orchestra which played there throughout the evening.

Only those who had secured reservations for a certain hour were served at the tables where but fifty could be seated at one time. Here, too, the Oriental motif was carried out with real Chinese chop suey bowls, though the chop sticks were dispensed with.

For all these Oriental features, for the objects of art, the lanterns, the costumes, the Chinese artists, the Chinese musical instruments and musicians who supplemented the fine music furnished by Patrick & Clark of Los Angeles, the entertainment committee was indebted to Mr. Wang, a Chinese gentleman of Los Angeles, an interpreter by profession, who enthusiastically co-operated with them, aided in installing the decorations and was early on hand to see that all was in order. He it was who announced the special numbers, first in Chinese and then in English.

It would be quite impossible to furnish a list of guests or to describe the costumes which made the ballroom a kaleidoscopic mingling of color supplied by rich and elaborate party gowns, smart sport clothes, full dress suits, white flannels and army uniforms.

Half the pleasure of an Elks' dance is the privilege of wandering through the beautiful club house between numbers. Saturday night was warm enough to make it a pleasant relief to visit the punch tables set on the front porch, and the roof garden, strung with Japanese lanterns where ice cream and cake were served.

Every possible provision had been made for the comfort and convenience of guests whose wraps were promptly and systematically checked as soon as they entered, leaving them at once free to enjoy the pleasures of the evening. To the entertainment committee was given the credit for the efficient execution of the well-planned affair, the members who constituted the "Big Five" being Messrs. Lou Sherman, R. D. Angelica, Arthur Dibern, Jack Hearnshaw and Herbert Henning.

SONS OF VETERANS MEETING

A meeting of the Sons of Veterans will be held Tuesday evening at G. A. R. Hall at 8 o'clock. Division Commander Hyden will be present with his staff and will put on the work, and there will be initiations and other important work to be performed. It is very desirable that all members should be present, especially those who have been overseas.

ANNOUNCEMENT PARTY

RELEASE OF NEWS OF ENGAGEMENT OF RUTH WILLIAMS TO W. L. RIFENBERICK

Mrs. C. N. Williams of 128 West Maple street, assisted by her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Marion Williams, and Mrs. Rodna Jacobs, of Alhambra, was hostess at an exceedingly pretty party given Saturday afternoon to announce the engagement of her daughter, Ruth L. Williams, to William Lorenzo Rifenberg. About eighteen young women, special friends of the bride-to-be, were guests, and after a pleasant social afternoon of games and other diversions they were gathered around a big table centered with a large cut glass bowl on a mirror standard which was filled with red clover, African daisies, Scabiosa, and "Baby's Breath," a lovely floral piece carrying out a pink and white color scheme and also making a bower for a tiny kewpie on whose head, peeping above the blossoms, was the diamond engagement ring of the guest of honor. The announcement thus suggested was confirmed by the luncheon favors, hand-painted flower girls carrying bouquets in which were red heart-shaped envelopes containing the announcement.

Miss Williams as deputy clerk has been assisting her father, who is clerk of the United States District Court, but resigned her position the first of July to prepare for her wedding which will take place August 27th.

The groom has many friends here, where he attended grammar school during his boyhood. He was graduated from Stanford University in 1917 and entered the army where he served as Master Electrician at Langley Field for the duration of the war. He was released from service about three months ago and at once returned to his old job of mechanical engineer with the Shell Oil Company by whom he was employed when he joined the army. Since his return he has received his Master's Degree from Stanford. The young people will therefore make their home in San Francisco.

The guest list included nine of the "Lucky Thirteen," of which Miss Williams is a much-beloved member. The full list included: Mrs. Hazel Miller of Los Angeles, Mrs. Marion Williams of Los Angeles, Mrs. Dorothy Young of Alhambra, Mrs. Rodna Jacobs of Alhambra, Mrs. Evelyn West of Glendale, Mrs. Katherine Ripley, Mrs. Dorothy Young and Mrs. Janie McKelvey, also of Glendale, Mrs. Lizzie Himeon of Los Angeles, Miss Ellen Webber, Miss Ruth Hazel and Miss Dorinda Haviland of Los Angeles, Misses Dorothy Hobbs, Mildred Lyon, Vera McPherson, Alice Gray Beach, May Church, Olive Williams, Ruth Williams and the hostess, Mrs. C. N. Williams.

FAMILY DINNER AT EMERY HOME

Mr. and Mrs. E. U. Emery of 329 North Kenwood street entertained Friday evening with a family dinner in honor of their son, Owen C. Emery, who recently returned from service in France, and the bride and groom, Dr. and Mrs. Ralph W. Lusby of San Fernando. The table at which the delicious four-course dinner was served was centered with hydrangeas and greenery. Following the dinner a pleasant social evening enlivened by vocal and instrumental music was enjoyed. Covers were laid for Dr. and Mrs. Ralph W. Lusby, Mrs. Olive M. Emery, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Lusby, Dr. and Mrs. C. R. Lusby, and son, Donald, Miss Margaret Lusby, Attorney Owen C. Emery, Gilbert Emery, Misses Waunita, Josephine and Olive Bell Emery, and the host and hostess.

MRS. DAUGHERTY'S MOTHER IMPROVING

A recent letter to Dr. J. H. Daugherty of 700 East Harvard from his wife, who has been with her mother in Eugene, Oregon, for several weeks, tells of the latter's slow recovery after many days of despair on the part of her relatives. A serious operation was performed in a Portland hospital soon after Mrs. Daugherty's arrival and this seemed likely to prove fatal at first, but the patient finally took a turn for the better and now her condition is very hopeful. The younger daughter, Miss Grace Phelps, who was in charge of a large company of nurses during the war, and whose interesting descriptions of the vast scope of her work were published in the Evening News, has recently returned from France and is now able to share the work of nursing with Mrs. Daugherty, who will probably be able to return home in a few weeks.

WEATHER FORECAST—Fair except cloudy or foggy at night and in the early morning near the coast.

SUGGESTION FOR VICTORY MEMORIAL

INTER-ALLIED COMMITTEE FAVORS FOUNDING "WORLD CITY" IN BELGIUM TO BE SEAT OF LEAGUE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
BRUSSELS, July 14.—The inter-allied committee on the commemoration of victory recommended the founding of a city in Belgium to be known as Geopolis (World City) as a memorial. It was also suggested that the city become the seat of the league of nations.

HUN AT UKIAH NEAR LYNCHING

CONFESSION OF HERMAN KNAESCHE THAT HE KILLED HIS BRIDE INFURIATES CROWDS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
Ukiah, Cal., July 14.—Herman Knaesche, a returned soldier, was rushed from Ukiah to the Santa Rosa jail today following a confession that he had killed his bride of two weeks. Angry crowds gathered around the jail here shouting: "Lynch the Hun." Knaesche was a naturalized German.

STRIKE BRINGS FATAL CONSEQUENCES

ONE KILLED AND TWO INJURED IN CLASH BETWEEN STRIKERS AND GUARDS AT ARGO, ILL.

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
ARGO, Ill., July 14.—One was fatally injured and two were seriously injured by gun play in a clash between six hundred strikers and the guards and loyal workmen at the Corn Products Refining company's plant here, this morning.

HARRY NEW ARRAIGNED THIS MORNING

EMPLOYMENT OF ATTORNEY LECOMPTÉ DAVIS WOULD INDICATE STUBBORN FIGHT FOR HIS LIFE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
LOS ANGELES, Cal., July 14.—Harry New, self accused murderer of Frieda Lesser was arraigned in the Superior Court this morning. He heard the murder indictment read without flinching and kept his eyes steadily on the district attorney. Friday was set as the time to plead guilty or not guilty. The noted lawyer, Lecompté Davis appeared for New as additional counsel, indicating that the fight will be a stubborn one.

SENATOR SWANSON OPENS TREATY FIGHT

SOUNDS THE KEYNOTE OF THE ADMINISTRATION'S DEFENSE OF THE LEAGUE OF NATIONS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
WASHINGTON, July 14.—Senator Swanson of Virginia today opened the fight for the peace treaty and the league of nations, sounding the keynote of the administration's defense of the league. He emphasized as of first importance the requirement in the covenant making necessary the concurrence of the United States in every decision of the league saying that this guarantees that the United States will not sacrifice its sovereignty.

Answering the attacks on the disarmament section he declared that no general plan of disarmament can be adopted without the consent of the United States and no obligations can be imposed without the approval of Congress.

He declared that article ten is necessary for world peace because it pledges all nations to abstain from wars of conquest. He also declares that it benefits the United States because it guarantees such possessions as the Philippines and the canal zone from aggression.

He claimed that the covenant protects the Monroe Doctrine and that in any case where the league conflicts with the doctrine's policy it is understood that the Monroe Doctrine will govern America's policy.

He declared that the United States can withdraw from the league in the future should it be necessary, but that now it is the country's clear duty to join the league and aid in "the settlement of world matters which are so urgently pressing for solution."

HOUSE DENIES DAYLIGHT SAVING REPEAL

AGRICULTURAL BILL REFERRED BACK TO COMMITTEE FOR ELIMINATION OF RIDER

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
WASHINGTON, July 14.—An attempt to pass a repeal of the daylight saving act over the President's veto, failed this morning in the House of Representatives. Opponents of daylight saving lacked 23 votes of enough to secure the repeal. Immediately following the failure to pass it over the veto, the agricultural bill to which the repeal was a rider, was referred back to the agricultural committee for the elimination of the repeal provision and it will probably be reported out again this afternoon.

IS THE MAN NEEDED

W. C. BRADLEY OF OAK STREET THOROUGHLY CONVERSANT WITH MEXICAN CONDITIONS

The government's call for a list of Southern California railway men who have had experience in such work below the border is taken as an indication of early intervention in Mexico. Glendale has one such man in W. C. Bradley, who was superintendent for a number of years of a division of the Mexican National Railway, with headquarters at Oaxaca. He stayed there long after it was dangerous for an American to be seen in Mexico and was in Mexico City during the Vera Cruz incident. His family gave him up for dead long months before he finally emerged from that land of murder and intrigue. His 17 years' residence in Mexico and his genial nature had won for him many friends, some of them moving in the highest circles of Mexican society and it was through the loyalty of some of these that he came through safely. About two years ago Mr. Bradley attempted to go back to the interior of Mexico to resume railroad work, but was turned back by bandit attacks on his train, which he helped to repel. He is a warm personal friend of Gen. Obregon, who protected him to the best of his ability in this attempt. There is not another man in Southern California who would be so useful to the government in the proceedings forecast as Wm. C. Bradley, of 523 Oak street, Glendale.

FAILS TO SEE ANNEXATION BENEFITS

Ray Bentley of the Bentley-Schoeneman Lumber Company says he can't see any advantage for Glendale in this agitation for annexation to Los Angeles. As he pointed out, that city can do nothing for us in the reduction of P. E. rates nor telephone tolls. That matter will be up to the California State Railroad Commission as soon as those public utilities are released by the government and at the present time they are under the control of the Federal government which has ratified the action of the companies in fixing rates. As to public improvements, we can get now all we are willing to pay for. We will still have to pay for all we get if we join Los Angeles but will lose control of our funds which in case of annexation may be spent elsewhere.

GLENDALE POLICE ON LOOKOUT FOR ESCAPED BANK ROBBER

The entire Glendale police force, in common with the officers of every city and county within 250 miles of Los Angeles, is searching diligently and hoping to capture Lewis B. Harris, the daring criminal charged with the Artesia bank robbery, who on Saturday stole four keys and let himself out of the county jail. Though bareheaded and in prison garb, Harris made an easy getaway in broad daylight and has not yet been apprehended. He is thought to have a long criminal record in the East.

FROM PIANOS TO CHICKENS QUITE ENJOYABLE

W. J. Carkeek, the ex-piano salesman who can draw magic tones of wonderful harmony from simple piano keys, is greatly enjoying his rest from 33 years of continuous salesmanship, on his little ranch at 1232 East California. His 500 chickens keep him busy and happy and the rest is building up his tired body. He said his wife had the previous chicken experience and he was rather dubious when he commenced the work, as to whether or no he would like it. But he finds it very attractive and interesting, so is not sorry he began it.

EARTHQUAKE SCHEDULED FOR TODAY

SAN FRANCISCO, July 14.—An earthquake is scheduled, probably in Salt Lake City, Southern California and in San Francisco, each at a different hour today, according to an anonymous correspondent to the Daily News of this city. The writer signs herself, "The Earthquake Lady." Previous predictions by the same writer have been fulfilled with startling regularity. The earthquake the writer claims will be caused by a rise of the Kilauea volcano, Hawaii, the shock not to last over a second. She further predicts a heavy rainfall in California on July 15th and 16th.

Mrs. Ella E. Gray of 414 West Broadway has just made a cash sale of her home there to Thomas Finn of Indianapolis who is taking possession and will occupy it as a home. Mrs. Gray is moving today (Monday) to 448 Pioneer Drive.

FATHERS' NIGHT

LARGE ATTENDANCE AT CENTRAL CHRISTIAN CHURCH TO HONOR FATHERS

Rev. Clifford A. Cole, pastor of the Central Christian Church, believes that fathers should be honored equally with mothers and announced that hereafter he will each year substitute for "Mothers' Day" an observance of "Parents' Day." But to even up matters this year, last night's observance was planned, since the regular Mothers' Day service was held early in June. The fathers were seated in the center of the church and special honors were paid them. The sermon subject was "Eli, a Good Man, but a Bad Father," and from the life of this judge in Israel lessons were drawn for present day fathers. Over-indulgence of children is a crime, which is bound to recoil on the heads of doting parents. Over-harshness is a fault but little less serious. "I would rather see," said the speaker, "a bad man who was a good father than a good man who was a bad father." In the first case, only the father would suffer final punishment, while in the latter, the children would go down to destruction.

The morning sermon was on "Christian Baptism" and the speaker showed from scripture quotations the design, the nature, the purpose of baptism and who should be honored by its observance.

The Bible School had another "Surprise Sunday" program, the teachers of most of the classes turning their pupils over to substitutes and holding a conference with the pastor and superintendent. A surprise was planned for next Sunday that will be uplifting and instructive. The attendance was very good and the offering unusually large.

Another interesting feature of this Sunday service was the Christian Endeavor meeting. The young people attended the general conference and echo meeting in the Lutheran Church at 6 then at 7 held their regular service. Jesse Fisher of Hollywood, who served with the 411th Telegraph Battalion, made a very interesting address, illustrated with pictures and maps. He showed and explained the use of quite a number of souvenirs he had picked up on battlefields, or secured from prisoners. The time was too short for all he could have said, so it is planned to have him out some Sunday evening soon when he can recount his experiences fully.

GLENDALE WELCOMES YOU, COL. TOM

Col. Tom Thornton, genial politician and all around good fellow, has repented of his sins in remaining away from Glendale so long, and is now become a full-fledged citizen, having purchased the property at the north-west corner of Brand boulevard and West California avenue. After making needed repairs to the new home he will settle down for life as a Glendale resident, moving here from La Crescenta.

SUCCESSFUL PICNIC

There was a big "turn-out" at the Congregationalist Sunday School picnic, which came off at Brookside Park, Pasadena, Saturday afternoon and evening, at least 150 being present. A delightful afternoon was spent by the young people swimming, playing tennis and other games and at six o'clock supper was spread, the picnicers returning in the dusk regretting that Glendale has no such place of recreation.

ONE OF MORGAN'S MEN

Francis Marion Shumate of 316 Milford street has been quite feeble of late and unable to leave the house. Mr. Shumate was one of Gen. John H. Morgan's famous Cavalry Division that created such havoc among the Union forces during the Civil War and was captured in a daring raid through Indiana and Ohio in 1863. He is now in his 78th year. Mrs. Shumate, who was confined to the house for nearly two years, is now able to be out to church quite regularly.

IMPERIAL LEADS

Government statistics show that the average yield of cotton per acre on Imperial and Palo Verde valley lands is well over 400 pounds of lint, while the average for Texas, Georgia and other southern states is only one-third of a bale to the acre.

Homesteaders may secure 160 acres of land in Alaska after fourteen months residence on payment of $1.25 an acre.

WOMEN TEACHERS CHARGE DISCRIMINATION

Pomona lady teachers have presented to the Board of Education a complaint charging that they are discriminated against in the way of salaries, the men teachers being given higher wages for the same class of work. This is no new controversy. It has been waged ever since women began to invade the field of men's activities. In most lines of work women are still discriminated against, but the inequalities are being gradually smoothed out.

ENGLAND LEADS IN AIRSHIP MANUFACTURE

Staid old England of pre-war days seems to have emerged from the great world struggle with so much accumulated Yankee pep that she is forging ahead of her American cousins in stimulating the inventive genius of her sons. In airplane and dirigible construction she easily leads the world. It was an English biplane that made the first non-stop flight across the Atlantic and an English dirigible that duplicated the performance. Now it is announced that the building of giant airships of both classes of construction are foreshadowed whereby London will be brought within 10 days' or less reach of every large city in the world. The London firm which plans this great work declares it is possible to build and operate an airship two or three times as large as the R-34, one that would transport 50 tons of freight and passengers, 10,000 miles if need be, at 80 miles an hour. Three classes of airships are contemplated—those of moderate size and high speed for carrying mail, express and passengers; another class of comparatively low speed and large carrying capacity, for general transportation; and liners, very swift and of large size, for exclusive passenger traffic. The average American feels mightily disappointed that the usually slow-going Britisher has so far outdistanced us in this line of progressive invention and manufacture.

AMERICAN LEGION AND DISABLED SOLDIERS

Probably the legion is too young and too indefinite to be able to say just what it will do for any one or any ideals we have embraced, but I feel that unhesitatingly we can say that one of the matters of paramount importance will be what we can do for the disabled soldier. Who would think for a moment that this would not be one of our very first duties and one in which we will personally take more pride and pleasure than almost any other one of several things? The wounded soldier and the American Legion—well, if I could just gather you all right up to my heart, I would say, "Buddie, we are strong for you; we love you sight unseen more than you can ever know; we feel your pains with you; we think of your great ambitions that you had before the war when you had two arms and those two legs and were a hundred per cent man. Now, there you sit, one arm, or one arm and leg or both legs gone or worse still with all limbs intact, but with the unmistakable effect of a deadly gas. Forget you? Never in the world! First, we want to see that you get absolute justice from the great country that you so willingly and nobly made that sacrifice for, not as though you were a charity patient in a city ward, but as one of the most honored of men. Second, we want to love you, be your buddie and friend all along the trail of the friendly years that are to follow. As we meet and pass from time to time, the signs of the physical sacrifices which you have made will ever call to us who are physically sound to be a big brother to you in any need or crisis."

So, brothers, while we have not had time to shape plans and policies for all our activities, one thing be sure of that for the disabled soldier and sailor the American legion will always "carry on." You can put your trust in this legion as being your friend and brother, ever at your service in a lasting and dignified manner.—Carry On.

STATE NEWS

(By United Press)
CORNING, Cal., July 14.—A corps of surveyors have established their headquarters in Corning and are engaged in running a new survey of the main canal of the great Iron Canyon Irrigation system through Tehama and Glenn counties. Work is going ahead on the survey of the dam above Red Bluff, while the survey being established here is partly to locate the boundaries of an irrigation district and partly to settle upon the line of the main canal. This project, when completed, will be one of the greatest in the world, and will place thousands of acres around Corning, in southern Tehama county, in a state of thrifty and profitable cultivation. Where land is now sold at cheaper figures than in any other part of the state, increase in values are certain.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., July 14.—Robert E. Clark started today to remove the grouch from California. Clark plans to make this a singing state, and says song will make it happy. He opened his class for singing leaders at the local Y. M. C. A., with which he is connected. These leaders will conduct open-air "sings" in the congested districts. Neighborhood "sings" were first introduced by Clark in New York City. Twenty three such "sings" are now going full blast there to crowds of 1500 and over. Clark is the man who introduced marching songs and company singing in the army. It was his work overseas that cheered the idle hours of many a homesick "doughboy."

SAN FRANCISCO, July 14.—Joining the celebration of the 134th anniversary of the Fall of the Bastille with the Victory of the Allies, hundreds of San Francisco French men and women today were joined by peoples of the allied nations in the observance of their Independence Day. Julien Neitner, French consul general and a chevalier of the Legion of Honor presided as honorary president at the observances held in the Municipal Auditorium.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 14.—Indicted by a Federal Grand Jury on charges of violating the "trading with the enemy act," Robert Russ, C. O. Swanberg and Henry W. Westphal appeared before the United States District Court today. The three are charged with having conspired to send money to Germany for relief of heirs to the Russ estate. Oscar Holmquist, Swedish dairyman, is being held as a government witness. Holmquist, it is charged, was to have acted as agent in getting the money to Germany. Russ is treasurer of the Russ estate, Westphal is president of the Merchants Ice and Cold Storage Company and Swanberg is proprietor of the Portola cafe of this city.

To Rid a Place of Ants

Many Glendale people are having excellent results in clearing their lawns and gardens of ants by a method recommended by the United States government.

This process calls for a small quantity of a solution made of sodium arsenate, tartaric acid, sugar, honey, and water in tin cans with the lids only partially cut out, which prevents access other than by insects, and place a number of these cans so prepared around your lot and gardens.

This mixture as recommended by the Government is a weak poison, and while not causing ants to die at once, it is carried to the larvae and in time exterminates the whole colony.

Another effective manner to use is by preparing small cloth bags, dipping them in melted paraffine and puncturing several holes with a hat pin, filling with the mixture and hanging in trees.

We prepare this formula, both in a concentrated solution to be added to sugar and water, also finished ready to use.

We will give you further particulars if you will call at our store.

ANNEXATION TO LOS ANGELES—NIX

Who says annex will get an ax
If L. A. gets you, you'll be on your backs.
All kinds of promises they will make
And from you everything will take.
A sewer system you say must come
In L. A. over fifty per cent. have none.
In L. A. the taxpayers holler
Because they have so little left of the dollar.
If anyone tries the Owensmouth water
They will think they have got a goitre
Its odor and color will startle you,
You'll have to buy Puritas water, too.
To irrigate lawns it may be all right,
But to drink it you would die with fright.
Our fire engines would be non-est
Our police protection put to rest,
Our city hall would be no more,
The great octopus would get your gore.
Our taxes would jump by leaps and bounds
As L. A. gobbles up surrounding grounds,
If you don't want to assume blue sky losses
Then keep Glendale from those high price bosses.
Don't let them take your birthright,
But stand right up and make a fight,
A mess of porridge is right for some,
But to most of us like poisoned rum
When some cajoler comes whispering about
Just up with your fist and give him a clout.
Won't there be a weeping and a wail
If we lose our good Glendale?
Some old chronic knockers have tried it before

In elections have wasted city money galore,
If it was their own money they had to spend
I do believe they would ask us the money to lend.
Tropico tried it a year or so back
It was defeated right then by an awful smack.
So let one and all work like thunder
And not permit such an awful blunder.

TODAY THE WORLD'S GREATEST CIVILIZATION

This is the trend of thought of a strong sermon preached by Rev. R. W. Mottern on this last Sunday morning, in the Lutheran Church, corner Harvard and Maryland avenue. He chose for his text Psalm 66:5, "Come and See the Works of God." When David wrote these words history was meager; the world was small. Were he to return to earth after 3000 years he would be dumbfounded at the changes civilization and Christianity have wrought in everything. Lowell spoke the truth perhaps better than he realized when he wrote

"We are living, we are living

In a grand and awful time,

In an age on ages telling,

To be living is sublime."

To behold this new era is more than "sublime," it is a reality. How many of earth's noblest men and women longed to see this day. They saw it by faith and were glad it was coming. God's hour had struck. The clock of time has brought us into the era of the world's greatest civilization. Today we recognize the hand of God has brought us to this most extraordinary world condition. It is the most astonishing time in every particular, the human race ever experienced. This is the full blooming flower of human development and world-condition, visioned by the great Luther, when he planted that flower in the liberation of human thought, conscience and action in 1517. What a realization this day has brought forth before our eyes!

In scanning the horizon we behold the works of God in the new life in the world; was not there five years ago when the nations went to war.

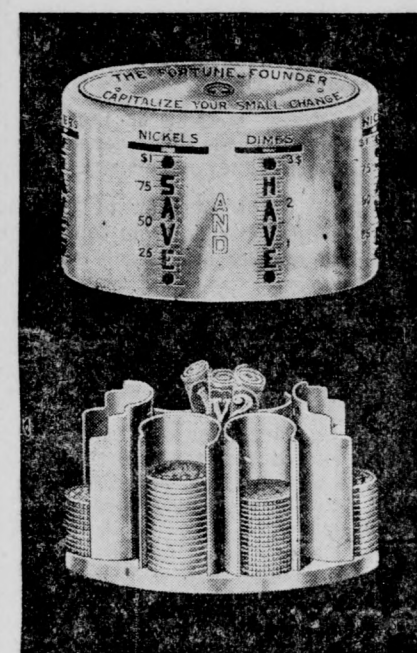

Now since peace has been signed, and before this world condition could come, did God require that 10 millions of men should offer the highest sacrifices of home, friends, country and blood on the battlefield? Was this the price of peace the god of war demanded besides the fearful staggering cost of 200 billions of money? God the Almighty did not ask nor demand such a price as the warring nations have paid, but He allowed it, that all the hatred, animosity, race prejudices, age-long feelings, and national jealousies might be rooted out of the human heart. National spite and prejudices in Europe have most ruinously vented their wrath upon each other, and now since it is all over, they are ready to get together and rebuild what they tore down.

The hand of God is marvelously seen in Turkey, where now at work the restoring and rehabilitating activities are going on in repairing roads, tilling fields, rebuilding homes, shops, schools, churches, hospitals, orphanages, industrial plants and recovering the scattered remnants. In India the missionary is being looked to more than ever as the teacher and leader of freedom's cause. In the Philippines it is the same. The tremendous stir this world-war has made in China, Japan, Korea, Siberia and other nations, all goes to show that instead of destroying the influence of Christianity, it has emphasized its message.

And since the armistice was signed on November 11, 1918, in Germany, Austria, Bulgaria, Rumania, Russia, Poland, Belgium and France, to each and all has come this new life of freedom as they had never dreamed. Today they realize the great vision of a world set free from tyranny, which for centuries groaned under political and military domination.

Our vision of the horizon of the world conditions today reveals also there has come a new life in our own National history. America has passed into a new birth. She has been recast. No statesman would have dared even dream such a condition five years ago. Our voice at the peace table spoke with strong emphasis. Indeed, Humanity, justice, equality and brotherhood of the nations, were our guiding stars there, not territory, nor yet indemnity. We went because of our love for humanity. A great change for the bettering has come over our foreign-born and American-born peoples amongst us. We do not any longer have "hyphenated Americans." The melting pot of our common school and common interest has mixed well all diverging interests. Our boys in the camps, and "over there" were one in aim and purpose, to free the world from political misrule, and stamp civilization with the highest ideals. The great industrial problems of capital and labor have a far better sympathy between them. Co-operation gives a far better hope and it brings in new and better conditions. Strikes and boycotts are far fewer. Quiet, order, respect for law control along every walk of life. And so a new enthusiasm has seized our country today. It is seen in the store, on the street, in the home, the shop, office and mill. This makes these days the greatest in our American history. And added to it to make our very hearts rejoice the world now at peace and our country a sober nation, our thanks to God know no bounds. The
